1. False. There will still be unavoidable error. In Naive Bayes, Y is probabilistic and can only estimate linear separable data, so it fails for distribution

$$Y = 1 \leftrightarrow X_1 \text{ XOR } X_2.$$